

FOREIGN.
France and China Still Hovering on the Brink of War.
LONDON, Sept. 6.—The Times in its leading editorial says that France is steadily drifting into a war with China.
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A correspondent of the Herald at Hong Kong had an interview with Chang Shu Sing, Viceroy of Southern China, on matters connected with the trouble with France. The Viceroy emphatically said:
"China will not sanction the Franco-Annamite treaty. The French must make some proper arrangement with the Chinese Ambassador in Paris or war is unavoidable."
Chang Shu Sing appeared to be well informed relative to the relations between England and France. Referring to the threatened seizure of Chinese customs by the French fleet, he said, smiling that such action would not inflict any very serious inconvenience to China, as the customs were for the most part hypothecated to English bankers.

ENGLAND.
LONDON, Sept. 6.—Owing to rumors that the Invincible was responsible for the death of Marwood, an inquest will be held.

FRANCE.
VIENNA, Sept. 6.—The Count of Chambord has left 60,000,000 francs to be equally divided between the Duke of Parma and the Count of Bardi.

SOUTH AMERICA.
LIMA VIA GALVESTON, Sept. 6.—An engagement took place at Colca, August 23, between a body of Montoneros and a Peruvian force under Colonel Duran. Twenty Montoneros were killed and many wounded.

ZULULAND.
DURBAN, Sept. 6.—A correspondent just returned from a tour through the heart of Zululand, reports that the natives are on a war of mutual extermination.

The Dakota Convention.
SIOUX FALLS, DAK., Sept. 6.—The Constitutional convention reassembled, Bartlett Tapp of Yankton, presiding. In an address he said it was charged that the Convention was revolutionary and not in harmony with the flag and Constitution of the United States, but instead of fighting against the Union they were fighting to get in. It has been decided to give a hearing to advocates of woman's suffrage and prohibition.
